PODCAST

CODEPREP PODCAST

Co-Host - codeprep.io/podcast

The goal of the CodePrep Podcast is to highlight the many different paths others have taken to get into tech. The podcast focuses predominately on interviewing women and under-represented groups. We want this to serve as a catalyst to encourage them to follow in our guest's footsteps.

TRAINING

CODEPREP.IO

I created this website to host my training courses. I have multiple training courses available. Training courses are multiple segment videos that teach a specific skill or tech knowledge. Examples of some of the training courses I have created are:

Learn ES6 Array Functions

Introduction to Vue.js

Introduction to Flexbox

Learn Flexbox with Real World Examples

Webpack Your New BFF

Ace the Coding Whiteboard Exercise

IN5DAYS.TECH

I created this website to provide a quick introduction to a wide range of topics of interest to beginner developers. Content is drip-delivered via email over a five-day period. Users can subscribe to a topic of their interest and get detailed emails delivered over the next five days.

SPEAKING

I am a frequent speaker at tech conferences. List of recent speaking engagements is on my website.
